IMPORTANT: School Uniform Policy

- Students must wear school issued polo shirts or dresses for all school days except for Fridays (see below).
- Students' pants may be either tan khaki or navy blue khaki pants or shorts (no cargo shorts/pants and no jean material).
- Plain colored brown, black, or navy belts must be worn at all times with uniforms (except uniform dresses) for all students in grades 3-8.
- Uniform shirts are to be tucked in at all times.
- Closed toed shoes are required (sneakers, tennis shoes).
- During cooler days, school issued jackets can be worn in the classroom. These jackets are available for purchase to wear at school.
- CASUAL FRIDAYS: On all Fridays, students can relax a bit by wearing their St. Paul's t-shirts. They need not tuck them in and no belts are required on this day. Pants, shorts, and shoe requirements remain the same for Casual Fridays.

Note: On Picture Day, September 7, students may dress up and choose not to wear their school uniforms for their pictures.
