Learning in a Christian setting

The most important goal at St. Paul's Lutheran School is to teach children the love of Jesus. Motivated by His love, children excel in everyday activities. In addition to studying God's word, students have the opportunity to develop God-pleasing values and habits as well as God-given talents and abilities.

Students' core classes

The "Four-R's" are the heart of classroom instruction. Reading, writing, arithmetic, and religion are essential. Literature, science, and social studies enhance children's experiences. Art, music, phy-ed, and other extra-curricular programs in the arts and sports, enrich their lives.
